

The FCC should quickly approve petition RM-10867. This petition would allow a greater number of people to enter into the amateur radio service, as well as retain and advance experienced amateur operators.